SAVAGE ONSLAUGHT ON READING STOCK

That Was the One Chief Feature of Heavy Decline on the Market.

BALLY CAME LATER, HOWEVER

Speculative Tone Uncertain and Bears Forced to Rebuy After Selling.

NEW YORK, May 22.-The fall it prices of stocks, after proceeding to some length to-day, encountered efa substantial rally. The tone of specu. lative sentiment continued very certain, as was evident from the hesitating later movement of prices. The check to the decline seemed to be due in large part to the head-long activipointed to the bear source of the buying.

A savage onslaught toon Reading was a feature of the early attack.
Conjecture continued busy over the sources of the heavy liquidation, which has come upon the market in the last few days, and prominent individuals were mentioned as sellers.
Calling of loans by banks outside of New York was said to be a factor in the urgent selling which has come out this week. Reports of a large personal loan negotiated by a capitalist prominent in the metal and mining industries were made the basis for inferences of iliquidation for that account. The heavy selling of United States Steel was thus accounted for,
and also by suppositions of a disposal of holdings growing out of an expected official change in the company.

There was no immediate develor.

posal of holdings growing out of an expected official change in the company.

There was no immediate development of importance in conditions today. The situation in the foreign exchange market left the question of gold exports undecided. The grain markets derived their greatest shape of strength from foreign crop news to-day, and were of correspondingly lessened effect on stocks. The obvious subsidence of the pressure of liquidation caused growing uneasiness amongst the bears, and there was something like a scramble amongst them to cover reports in the late dealings.

COTTON MARKETS
THE PARTY OF THE P

NEW YORK, May 22.—After some early irregularity the cotton market became more active and has a sharp advance on a renewal of build apport and covering. The close was steady at 14 921 points higher. Sales were estimated at 36,686 baies. The opening was steady at decline of 194 points in response to low cables, and a favorable weather map. There was further liquidation following the call bears, and at one time during the morning prices and at one time during the morning prices allowed a first bear of the account of local bears, and at one time during the morning prices and at one time during the morning prices allowed a first bear of a board 20 points. The was further followed by an advance on covering and buil support, which may have been encouraged to some extent by the forecast for showers in parts of the western and central beit, and in the afternoon the market, which had been comparatively quiet early became more active and somewhat excited with prices advancing some 25 922 points from the low point of the morning. Near the close there was realizing, under which the active month eased 3 or 4 points off from the beer. Very bullish private crop advices were received during the day and probably

MUCH MORE ACTIVE

The leaf tobacco breaks were again small yesterday, amounting to but a little over 30,000 pounds. The small sales were over within an hour. The offerings were of medium goods, with a sprinkling of good fillers, which were eagerly taken at high prices.

Information from the bright tobacco markets is to the effect that the breaks are small and the markets very active, the buyers being eager for more stock than they can find o nthe warehouse floors from day to day.

The Richmond, warehouses look for larger breaks to-day, the receipts last night indicating that they will reach 50,000 pounds or more. The sales will run as follows: First, at Shelburne's second, at Crenshaw's; third, at Shockee, and fourth, at Stonewall.

COTTON

NEW YORK, May 22.—The suit I brought against the New York Cotton Exchange, with a view of effecting a reformation in its methods, has been dismissed by the referee, upon technical grounds.

reformation in its methods, has been dismissed by the referce, upon technical grounds.

This dismissal, however, has not resulted in any withdrawal of my charges, or deprived me of further legal resource in the premises. The issue is joined, but not by any means determined.

I shall continue by every means within my power to fight for a just and merchantable contract in New York; and, as long as the crop outlook continues a sextraordinary as it is at present, and the indicated shortage in next year's production seems to be as acute as at present I continue to believe that higher prices for cotton are justified. I cannot but be amused by the various rumors current with regard to my position in the market, I have heard to-day, alternately that I was heavily short and heavily long. As a matter of fact, I believe that cotton is going higher and very much higher, before spinners will be able to secure from the crop now being planted any reasonable proportion of the cotton they require.

I shall publish my report giving the acreage and condition of the crop on Friday next. As far as I have been able to digest the replies, thus far received, the indications are that It will be an extremely bullish document.
